The Vicarage
30th June 2019

Dear Friends,

You may well remember that this time last year I had just returned from GAFCON – the Global Anglican Futures Conference in Jerusalem. It was a great time of sharing teaching and fellowship with Anglican brothers and sisters in Christ from around the world, and to experience the vitality of Anglicanism on other continents, even if we often feel small and excluded in Britain and the west.

I mention this now is because this Sunday, 30th June, marks the 11th birthday of GAFCON, which first met in 2008 in Jerusalem. It was formed in response to doctrinal and moral error in the Anglican communion, particular in response to events in North America. It gives a voice to the majority of Anglicans worldwide who are committed to hearing God's Word and sharing the good news of Jesus, when, sadly, some are seeking to transform the church into the image of the surrounding culture.

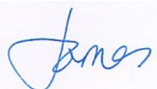

The 2008 Conference issued the Jerusalem statement and declaration, which begins in this way:

We, the participants in the Global Anglican Future Conference, have met in the land of Jesus' birth. We express our loyalty as disciples to the King of kings, the Lord Jesus. We joyfully embrace his command to proclaim the reality of his kingdom which he first announced in this land. The gospel of the kingdom is the good news of salvation, liberation and transformation for all. In light of the above, we agree to chart a way forward together that promotes and protects the biblical gospel and mission to the world, solemnly declaring the following tenets of orthodoxy which underpin our Anglican identity.

Eleven years on, its message remains as relevant today as it was then. We live in a time of cultural upheaval, particularly in the west, where old certainties are being overturned, and where novelty is praised for its own sake. Into that culture we need to continue to speak the good news of Jesus Christ.

So, let me encourage you to keep up with what's happening with GAFCON around the world. You can keep in touch with their website - www.gafcon.org, and I find the news pages particularly helpful. Do have a look – and if you want any of the Anglican-speak decoding, do let me know!

Yours in Christ
